

ABSTRACT

Provided is a self-closing hinge system, including a first member, and a second member rotationally coupled to the first member, wherein the first and second members each include an oblique edge abutting each other, such that a horizontal force on one of the members is translated into a horizontal and vertical force.

Z:\TMDOCS\03-12180\03-12180 UTILITY PATENT APPLICATION.DOC